

disclaimer of warranty

Hereby I, (name / bdate of the student)

(as the dive student) declare to ProTec as diving instruction organisation and to the ProTec Instructor, (name of the Instructor)

1. I am aware that diving, especially technical diving, as extreme sport is at my own risk.
2. Neither the ProTec organisation nor the ProTec Instructor can be held liable to me for any diving accidents or consequences occurring from them except for those due to intention or gross negligence.
3. I am aware that the ProTec Instructor holds diving courses, instructs divers and examines them according to standards prespecified by ProTec. It must be noted that local and legal regulations hold additionally. I am familiar with local regulations.
4. During recreational scuba diving, I always have to attend to the ProTec Instructors orders. During extreme diving (technical diving), the ProTec Instructor acts only as observer and escort; the ProTec Instructor will not act as diving instructor or rescue diver.
5. It is up to me in particular cases to take all necessary actions to prevent endangering health and life aside from the fact that I have to follow the ProTec Instructors instructions, except if I detect instructions inappropriate for the situation. All remaining possible dangers are to be borne at my own risk.
6. I explicitly declare to have necessary environmental knowledge, diving skills as well as a locally valid, medical certification of capability and to have verified them with my ProTec Instructor.

....., the
Location Date

.....
Signature